

Exploratory Workshop “An Environmental History of the Early Modern Period—Experiments und Perspectives”

Rachel
Carson
Center

PROGRAM

When: 17-19 February 2011

Where: Rachel Carson Center for Environment and Society, Munich

Organized by: Martin Knoll, Reinhold Reith

Please note: parts of this workshop will be held in German

Thursday:

Arrival

15.00 Welcome

15.20 Input

15.40 Panel: Climate (Christian Pfister, Wolfgang Behringer, Franz Mauelshagen (commentary))

16.55-17.15 Break

17.15-18.30 Panel: Disasters/Extreme Events (Manfred Jakubowski-Tiessen, Christian Rohr, Gerrit Schenk (commentary))

19.30 Dinner

Friday:

09.00 Panel: Aquatic and Fluvial Environmental Histories (Salvatore Ciriaco, Martin Schmid)

10.05-10.20 Break

10.20 Panel: Cities (Martin Knoll, Georg Stöger (commentary))

11.25-11.30 Break

11.30 Panel: Forests (Reinhold Reith, Richard Hölzl (commentary))

12.35-14.00 Lunch (in-house)

14.00 Panel: Land Use and Agricultural Knowledge (Verena Winiwarter, Marcus Popplow (commentary))

15.05-15.15 Break

15.15 Panel: History of Knowledge and Perception / The Alps (Simona Boscani-Leoni, Torsten Meyer (commentary))

16.20-16.30 Break

16.30-18.00 Panel: Environmental History in the Early Modern Period in Higher Education (Manfred Jakubowski-Tiessen (Graduate Studies Center Göttingen), Martin Schmid / Verena Winiwarter (IFF Vienna); short statements from participants about the state of affairs at their respective institutions)

18.00-18.10 Break

18.10-19.10 Discussion / Summary

19.30 Dinner

Saturday:

9.00 Group discussions

9.30 Presentation of posters to Plenum

10.40-11.00 Break

11.00-12.30 Closing Discussion