

LUDWIG-
MAXIMILIANS-
UNIVERSITÄT
MÜNCHEN

RACHEL CARSON CENTER
FOR ENVIRONMENT & SOCIETY

Program

After Glasgow: Looking Back at the COP and Future Collaborations

Workshop in Collaboration with the Rachel Carson Center (RCC), The Royal Society of Edinburgh (RSE), University of Glasgow, and Luxembourg Institute of Socio-Economic Research (LISER)

7 May 2022

Location: RCC Conference Room, Leopoldstr. 11a,
Munich, Germany

Conveners: Gerald Taylor Aiken (LISER), Dominic Hinde (University of Glasgow/RSE)

“A day of workshops and reflection to ask how the interdisciplinary environmental community can respond to the Glasgow COP and the global situation.”

- | | |
|-------|---|
| 10:00 | Welcoming Remarks by Christof Mauch, RCC
COP Overview and Introduction by Dominic Hinde and Gerry Aiken |
| 10:25 | Screening of Adaptation Film (made pre-COP) |
| 10:50 | Julia Pongratz, LMU Munich, Department of Geography
“The Science Basis of Emission Reduction Pledges: Unheard Warnings or Driver of Change?” |
| 11:30 | Gerald Taylor Aiken, LISER
“From mitigation to adaptation: the view from community” |
| 12:15 | Lunch |
| 13:15 | Dominic Hinde, University of Glasgow/RSE
“The COP, Media and Public Perception” |
| 14:00 | Jenia Mukherjee, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur
“Rethinking Climate Risks and Resilience: Grounded Narratives from Delta Ecologies” |
| 14:45 | Coffee Break |

LUDWIG-
MAXIMILIANS-
UNIVERSITÄT
MÜNCHEN

RACHEL CARSON CENTER
FOR ENVIRONMENT & SOCIETY

15:00–16:45
18:30

Open Guided Session on Responses and Collaborations
Dinner

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact the conveners:
gerald.aiken@liser.lu, dominic.hinde@glasgow.ac.uk or mauch@lmu.de