

Going Green: The emergence and entanglements of the green movement in Australia, the USA and Germany 1970 to present day

SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM

Wednesday, 6.11.2013

7:00 pm Informal dinner for participants who would like to join
Meeting point: In front of the Rachel Carson Center, Leopoldstrasse 11a, 80802 München.

Thursday, 7.11.2013

8:45 am Welcome and introductory remarks

I. Temporal dimension

Cultural Reception of Concepts, Discourses and Perceptions

9:00 – 10:30 am

Anna Wöbse “Nature's anthropological monuments or green heros?”:
Aborigines in the European discourse on nature protection

Sabine Sauter Australia's Dust Bowl: American Influences in Australia's Environmental Movement 1930s-1980s

10:30 – 11:00 am Coffee break

II. Spatial dimension

Transfer of Ideas and Limits of Transfer – Part I

11:00 am – 1:15 pm

Chris McConville Australia's New Environmentalism: Local and Transnational Histories

Frank Zelko                      From Basisdemokratie to Umweltmulti: The Establishment of Greenpeace Deutschland

Astrid Kirchhof                “It’s Women’s Rights to Differ”: Petra Kelly and Helen Caldicott - Two Prominent Activists in the International Anti-Nuclear Movement

1:15 pm                          Lunch

Transfer of Ideas and Limits of Transfer – Part II

2:45 – 4:15 pm

Christopher Rootes          Exemplars and Influences: transnational flows in the environmental movement

Stephen Healy                 Environmental Governance and the Green Movement

4.15 – 4.45 pm                Coffee break

4.45 – 6:00 pm                Matching up topics: smaller group discussions incl. presentation

6:30 pm                         Dinner

Friday, 8.11.2013

8:45 – 9:30 am                Discussion and decision on the form of publication

9:30 – 10:30 am              Wrapping up of the papers by Franz-Josef Brüggemeier and discussion on binding themes

10:30 – 11:00 am             Coffee break

11:00 am – 12:45 pm        Discussion on binding themes continued

12:45 am – 1:00 pm        Conclusion and outlook