

Environmental Humanities: Perspectives for Research and Teaching

3–5 June 2022

Seeon Monastery, Klosterweg 1, 83370 Seeon

Friday, 3 June

- 11:45 Meeting at Munich East Station (Ostbahnhof) on platform 8 for the 12:04 train BRB RE5 (79019) to Bad Endorf (train towards Salzburg) & taxi journey to Kloster Seeon from Bad Endorf Bahnhof
- 13:30–14:30 Arrival & lunch
- 14:30–15:15 Welcome from the RCC
- 15:15–16:00 Coffee break & check-in
- 16:00–17:30 “Environmental Humanities: Where Do We Stand?”
Exchange of disciplinary perspectives on environmental humanities research and teaching between all participants
- 17:30–18:30 Free time
- 18:30 Dinner & presentation by Prof. Dr. Shaul Bassi and Prof. Dr. Francesca Tarocco (Ca’Foscari University of Venice)

Saturday, 4 June

- 9:00–12:00 “Advancing Teaching & Pedagogies in the Environmental Humanities”
An interactive session on collaborative teaching ideas and preliminary bibliographies (course plans will be shared among all participants after the workshop)
- 12:00–13:30 Lunch
- 13:30–15:00 “Cutting-Edge Research Questions for the Future”
Brainstorming research collaborations and joint events for new directions in the environmental humanities
- 15:30 Outing to the Mozart Oak
- 18:30 Dinner

Sunday, 5 June

- 10:00–12:00 “What’s Next?”
Closing discussion & comments
- 12:00–13:30 Lunch & check-out
- 13:30 Taxi journey back to Bad Endorf Bahnhof for 14:13 train BRB RE5 (79030) to Munich