

Multiple Diversities: A Day at the Rachel Carson Center Landhaus

18 May 2022

Herrmannsdorfer Landwerkstätten
Herrmannsdorf 7
85625 Glonn, Germany

- 9:30 Departure from the Rachel Carson Center, Leopoldstr. 11a, 80802 Munich, Germany
- Bus talk on “Diversity in International Research Groups: What We Have Learned So Far” by Dr. Alessandro Rippa (VW Freigeist Fellow and PI of “Environing Infrastructures: Communities, Ecologies, and China’s ‘Green’ Development in Contemporary Southeast Asia”)
- 10:30 Arrival in Herrmannsdorf and tour of RCC Landhaus
- 11:00 Tour of the Herrmannsdorfer Landwerkstätten by Karl Schweisfurth (Head of Gut Herrmannsdorf e.V. and pioneer in ecological farming practices)
- 12:30 Lunch
- 14:00 Introduction of an interdisciplinary research community by the RCC Landhaus Fellows
- “Some Reflections on the Diversity and Ambiguity of Organic Farming in Southern Spain and Beyond” by Andreas Jünger (environmental historian)
- 15:30 Free time to explore
- 16:00 Departure via bus back to Munich

Register via this link: <https://bit.ly/39zAqiX>.